Customer Reviews

Didn't like it, no what I expected. I especially don't like been forced to give a review in order to continue reading a book paid for. A review should be voluntary, the paging was blocked by the review part and wouldn't continue until a review was written.

My son used this as a reference for a research essay on Faulkner's "A Rose for Emily." It was especially useful since he had waited until the night before the due date to write the essay and Wheeler's analysis was available in Kindle format.

this helped me get an A in my english class and it was well worth it in the long run
